

NATIONAL LUMBER

KITCHEN AND BATH DESIGNER

NATIONAL LUMBER CO (www.nationallumber.biz) is a 5th generation family owned and operated building material supplier located in Baltimore, MD. We are a premier supplier for cabinetry in our region and are currently undergoing a massive state of the art renovation to our kitchen design center.

We are seeing a Kitchen and Bath Designer to join our growing team!

Position Responsibilities:

- Meet with clients in the showroom to assist them with product selections
- Maintain solid relationships with customers and decision makers through use of creative problem solving and timely follow-up
- Effectively navigate the sales process from start to finish beginning with identifying the client's goals and ending with project completion.
- Continued education and training for all cabinet and countertop manufacturers partnered with National Lumber (including stock/ semi-custom and custom cabinetry). Candidate must have strong product knowledge
- On site field measurements to verify dimensions
- Use 20/20 Auto Cad design software

Knowledge / Skills / Abilities:

- Excellent verbal and written communication skills with an ability to convey strong, clear messages to customers
- Strong interpersonal and relationship-building skills at multiple levels
- Solution-oriented and innovative thinking abilities
- Strong organizational skills, intuition, and reasoning abilities
- High energy, self-directed, highly confident, and self-motivated
- Team player with strong business perspective

Education / Experience:

- 4-year degree or equivalent industry experience preferred
- Prior experience in kitchen design capacity
- Proficiency in 20/20 and Microsoft Office Suite

Detailed product training program for new candidates will be provided.

We are committed to continued education for our sales personnel and strive to create every opportunity for our team members to succeed and grow.

Excellent benefits provided including health & dental insurance, retirement plan and vacation policy. Wage commensurate with experience

Interested applicants should email info@nationallumber.biz

